ORDER:

The only complaint of the petitioner is that when his kerosene dealership was cancelled on the ground of issuing kerosene on fake coupons, he filed an appeal before the Joint Collector and Additional District Magistrate, Vizianagaram, who by his order dated 03.09.2003 set aside the orders passed by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Vizianagaram in his proceedings Rc.No.1986/02K dated 21.02.2003 and remanded the matter to the R.D.O. with a direction to conduct a fresh enquiry and dispose of the case by giving specific findings, since the findings recorded by the Revenue Divisional Officer were found to be not satisfactory, further it was ordered that the Revenue Divisional Officer was not precluded from suspending the authorization of the petitioner pending disciplinary case against him, though it is about 3 years now, the Revenue Divisional Officer, Vizianagaram has not taken any action in conducting fresh enquiry and passing appropriate orders. According to the petitioner except issuing a show cause notice dated 08.11.2004 to which he had submitted his explanation, nothing happened in the matter.

2. In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, the Revenue Divisional officer, Vizianagaram is directed to dispose of the matter as directed by the Joint Collector, Vizianagaram, in his proceedings dated 03.09.2003 within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order if not already disposed of, failing which the respondents shall restore the licence granted in favour of the petitioner.

C.V.RAMULU, J.
